Breif description of event:

Donation drive in the college was organized to donate new, used or unused items to those who really need them. Through this program the student should also learn that how helping others brings happiness.

The donation drive was conducted in the college premises on 28th March 2023. The program was conducted by Student Welfare Committee ( SWC) in joint collaboration with NSS unit. More than fifty students had participated in this program. Most of the teachers, non teaching staff and students had contributed their clothes spontaneously for this noble purpose. Prior to the program the student volunteers of SWC and NSS organized the clothes in boxes and made the coupons. Nearby slum dwellers were told to come and collect the clothes on that day ,the timing was from 12-30 pm to 4-00 pm. All the donated clothes were handed over to 75 people . Among them female recipients were 45 and 25 are male recipients. Different types of clothing like saree, blouse, kurta, trousers, shirt and sweaters were given to them. Also pen, pencils and stationaries were given to the children. The program seemed successful after seeing a broad smile on their faces.

Programme outcome

The distribution of dresses and accessories to slum dwellers had a positive impact, fostering a sense of community and providing tangible assistance. It likely contributed to improved self-esteem and well-being among the recipients, promoting a spirit of goodwill and support within the community.

Number of participants: 30

Brief description of the event: Our college celebrated India's 75th Independence Day with great fervour and enthusiasm. We organized a series of events and activities to instil a sense of patriotism and unity among the students. The day commenced with the solemn flag hoisting ceremony, symbolizing the freedom that India attained on August 15, 1947. Our Secretary Mataji hoisted the national flag, and the entire school gathered to pay homage to the sacrifices made by freedom fighters. A variety of cultural programs were organized, showcasing the rich diversity of India. Students participated in patriotic songs, dance performances, and skits depicting historical events related to the struggle for independence. These performances not only entertained but also educated the students about the significance of Independence Day. Selected students delivered speeches highlighting the importance of freedom and the role of national heroes in achieving it.

NSS volunteers have paid salutation to National Flag and garlanded the portraits of freedom fighters. NSS volunteers took pledge as a part of Mera Mati Mera Desh.

Outcomes: The Independence Day celebration at college was a resounding success, fostering a spirit of patriotism and pride among the students. The event not only honoured the sacrifices of the past but also inspired the younger generation to contribute towards the progress and well-being of the nation.

21.Name of activity: Constitution Day

Category: Student's Activity

Organising unit: NSS

Date: 26/11/23

Time: 11:00am onwards

Venue: Online

Name of resource person/s (with designation): Tandra Mondal, Visiting Faculty, Department of Political Science, RKSMVV

Number of participants: 45

Brief description of the event: A webinar was organized to celebrate the Constitution Day of India. Tandra Mondal, Visiting Faculty, Department of Political Science, RKSMVV has delivered an informative speech on “Indian Constitution and its importance” There was a question answer session where students asked several questions to the speaker. Afterwards there was Online Quiz arranged by our college. 4 students read out the Preamble and had made video. More than 75 along with P0 read the Preamble online at MY BHARAT Portal and downloaded certificate.

Outcomes: Reading the Preamble on Constitution Day fosters civic awareness, instills a sense of national identity, and promotes understanding of democratic principles among students. It emphasizes the values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity, contributing to a deeper appreciation for the constitution and the rights it guarantees.

Furthermore, the act of reading the Preamble encourages students to reflect on the responsibilities of citizenship and the role they play in upholding democratic ideals. It serves as a reminder of the shared commitment to building a just and inclusive society, fostering a sense of unity and civic engagement among the younger generation.

Brief description of the event: NSS Unit of RKSMVv in collaboration with Department of Education observed the World Aids Day. Students of Education have made charts on AIDS and its prevention and they described lucidly what is AIDS and how one can avoid it. 2 NSS volunteers have made ppt and told us about the prevention from AIDS. At last they read out the pledge and all the students present there took pledge. Dr. Payal Bose Biswas, ASSistant Professor of Political Science summarized the details regarding AIDS.

Outcomes: Programs on AIDS prevention by students can have positive outcomes, fostering awareness, education, and behavioral changes. These initiatives often contribute to reducing stigma, promoting safe practices, and encouraging regular testing for early detection. The overall impact depends on the effectiveness of the program, community engagement, and sustained efforts in promoting responsible behaviour.
