Course Outcome:

After successful completion of this course, students are able to:

Identify personal values and articulate their significance in decision-making processes.

Demonstrate a commitment to lifelong learning and ethical behaviour in their personal and professional lives.

Overall, this course aims to empower students to become ethical leaders and responsible global citizens who contribute positively to society.

Assessment Procedure:

Three Formative Assessments' scores are provided as percentages. The Total Grade is determined based on the overall performance across all assessments. The Continuous Assessment column provides a general evaluation of the students' participation, engagement and adherence to deadlines throughout the course.

Course Outcome:

Upon completion of this course, students have gained a deeper understanding of religious diversity and its significance in contemporary society. They have learnt to appreciate the principles of religious harmony as exemplified by Sri Ramakrishna Dev. They have developed critical thinking skills to analyze and evaluate different religious perspectives. They are expected to cultivate values of tolerance, empathy, and respect towards individuals of diverse faiths.

Assessment Procedure:

Three Formative Assessments' scores are provided as percentages. The Total Grade is determined based on the overall performance across all assessments. The

This course aims to introduce undergraduate college students to the life, teachings, and values exemplified by Swami Vivekananda, a prominent figure in India's spiritual and cultural landscape. Swami Vivekananda's ideas resonate deeply with the youth, offering guidance and inspiration in various facets of life. Through a blend of lectures, discussions, readings, and reflective exercises, students will explore Vivekananda's philosophy and its relevance to contemporary challenges. The course encourages critical thinking, self-reflection, and the application of Vivekananda's teachings to personal and societal contexts.

Dr Rajeswar Mukherjee, Dept. of Hindu Studies, School of Buddhist Studies, Philosophy & Comparative Religion, Nalanda International University.

Course Objectives:

Indian knowledge system is one of the oldest and most diverse systems of knowledge in the world. It encompasses a vast array of disciplines. It also has a profound Impact on human values over the centuries. The Indian civilization has a rich heritage of philosophy, spirituality and Science that has shaped the thinking and values of people across the globe.

In this course, we want to explore the profound teachings of the Srimad Bhagavadgita, focusing specifically on the second chapter. The Bhagavadgita is a timeless scripture that offers profound insights into various aspects of life, spirituality, duty, and the path to liberation. Chapter 2, titled "Sankhya Yoga" or "The Yoga of Knowledge," lays the foundation for the entire Gita, addressing themes of duty, righteousness, detachment, and the nature of the self
