Course Overview:

This course helps the students to understand that Women empowerment is a global mission due to its very spirit of inclusive development irrespective of caste, sex, colour, ethnicity or other facets of disadvantages but in the country like India the unequal treatment of women, differentiation of role, responsibility and status between male and women has a long rooted socio-cultural perspective.

Course Objectives:

This course delves into the critical exploration of women empowerment through the lens of Sri Sarada Devi's teachings. It aims to provide undergraduate students with a comprehensive understanding of the principles and practices of women empowerment, drawing inspiration from the life and teachings of Sri Sarada Devi. Through the examination of philosophical, historical, and contemporary perspectives, students will develop insights into the significance of gender equality, selflessness, and compassion in fostering women's empowerment and societal progress.
