Brief Description of the Event: On January 31, 2024, the faculty members of the Department of Philosophy organized a visit to the Kolkata Book Fair for the first-semester students. The trip provided an opportunity for students to immerse themselves in the world of books, offering them access to a wide array of literature and academic resources. Throughout the day, the students explored various book stalls, discovering a diverse selection of books. Many took the opportunity to purchase academic materials relevant to their studies, while others indulged in storybooks and novels that captured their interest. The faculty members guided them, ensuring they made the most of this enriching experience.

Event Outcome: The visit to the Kolkata Book Fair was a resounding success. Engaging with such a vast collection of books in a lively atmosphere allowed the students to appreciate the importance of literature beyond their regular coursework. The excitement and enthusiasm they displayed during the visit highlighted their love for reading and the joy of discovering new books. Overall, it was a highly enjoyable and successful trip, leaving a lasting impact on the students.
