Brief description of event: On 20.5.24 an extension lecture was arranged for the students of Bengali department on the text Agunpakhi, included in the syllabus of semester 6 , paper DSE4/5. 16 students attended the lecture.

Programme outcome (within 300 words):

This lecture has been arranged to help the students to have a more clearer vision about the text Agunpakhi. Detailed discussion of the text will encourage the students to analyse their answers in a more creative way. As being a partition narrative from feminist perspective this text and its discussion also shed lights on colonial politics and enlighten the students political and feminist consciousness as well.
