Date: 27.3.2024

Time: 11.00 am- 2.30 pm

Venue: CGO Complex, Kolkata

Number of Participants: 18

Brief description of the event: This program was organised by the Government of India, where our college Ramakrishna Sarada Mission Vivekananda Vidyabhavan was also invited. Students were informed regarding the different roles and functions of the election commission, in India. They were also informed about the duties of first-time voters in our country. Other speakers made the session so valuable and enriched our students. A quiz session was also arranged, where students of RKSMVV actively participated.

Programme Outcome: In this programme, students got a lot of information on the Election Commission of India. They were also aware of their duties as first-time voters. They realized the fact i.e. their single vote could change the future of the country. Hence, every single vote is important, and should not be wasted. Lastly, this initiative of the Government of India will help the students to be better citizens of their country.
