Brief description of the event: Gender Resource Centre, Internal Committee and IQAC, RKSM Vivekananda Vidyabhavan, organised a discussion on International Working Women's Day and arranged a programme on Inspire Inclusion –the campaign theme for International Women's Day 2024. We have aimed to inspire others to understand and value women's inclusion and forge a better world that inspires women to be included and there is a sense of belonging, relevance, and empowerment. The programme began with a students' presentation, followed by a talk by eminent journalist Ms Swati Bhattacharjee on March 22, 2023. Dr Soma Marik, Associate Professor of History and activist gave an overview of the significance of International Working Women's Day.

Programme Outcome: Students appreciated the UN motto of this year's International Women's Day. They understood the broader implication of women being included and why it is important to Inspire Inclusion.
