Brief description of the event – RKSMVV in collaboration with KESTOPUR JAGORANI FOUNDATION organized 'NARA NARAYANA SEVA' on 16 FEBRUARY 2024. Dhosa village is located in Jaynagar I subdivision of South 24 Parganas district in West Bengal. A Brick Kiln community was served with relief materials today by 4 teachers, 2 ex-students, 8 current students and 2 inmates of RKSMVV. All were provided with sarees, blankets, umbrellas, school bags etc. About 330 people were sumptuously fed with rice, lentil, potato chips, cabbage with prawns, mutton and chutney.

Programme outcome – The distribution of sarees and blankets provided immediate relief to the affected population, helping them cope with the harsh conditions. The event fostered a sense of solidarity and mutual support within the community, as neighbours and volunteers worked together to ensure that everyone received the aid they needed. The programme also highlighted the importance of disaster preparedness and community-driven relief efforts, setting a precedent for future initiatives. The recipients expressed profound gratitude for the timely assistance, acknowledging the impact it had on their well-being and morale during this difficult time.
