Brief Description of the event: Dr. Jaideep Sarangi, a renowned academic and district mentor, visited our college to provide his expert guidance on the preparation and submission of our Self Study Report (SSR). His visit was instrumental in refining our approach and ensuring our documentation met the highest standards. Dr. Sarangi began the session with a comprehensive introduction to the importance of SSR in the accreditation process. He provided an overview of the essential components of a robust SSR, emphasizing clarity, accuracy, and thoroughness. Dr. Sarangi meticulously reviewed our draft SSR, highlighting areas of strength and identifying sections that required improvement. He offered constructive criticism and practical suggestions to enhance the quality and coherence of our report. He provided us with recommendations for Improvement such as incorporating more data-driven evidence to support our claims and achievements and recommended ways to better align our institutional goals with the criteria set by the accreditation body.

Program Outcome: Dr. Jaideep Sarangi's visit was a significant milestone in our SSR preparation journey. His guidance not only improved our current report but also equipped us with the knowledge and skills to maintain high standards in future accreditation processes. The college immensely benefited from Dr. Sarangi's visit. His expert inputs and tailored suggestions were instrumental in enhancing the quality of our SSR. The faculty and staff gained a deeper understanding of the accreditation process and the critical role of the SSR in it. We express our heartfelt gratitude to Dr Sarangi for his invaluable contribution and look forward to implementing his suggestions to achieve excellence in our institutional documentation.
