Brief Description of the event: Making PowerPoint templates is a part of the Honours syllabus. Our students were taught how to make ppt presentations. The students of semester II made presentations on Folklore on Adibasi Diwas and presented them before their guide, Prof. Rohini Dharmapal, Dept. of Education, RKSMVV. They took help from books and the Internet.

Programme Outcome:

They did excellent teamwork and presented their work in an informative way. The students got an opportunity to express their creativity through these presentations. They were able to use different PowerPoint features to make their presentations look attractive and more engaging. Besides, they explained their slides in an informative way that helped them to express their thoughts, feelings and opinions freely. Besides, it helped them to know more about different folk cultures and their importance.
