

Name of the Event: Student's Seminar on International Women's Day Celebration

Category: Student's Seminar and Presentation

Organizing Unit: Department of Philosophy and Education, RKSMVV

Topic: International Women's Day

Date: 7.3.2024

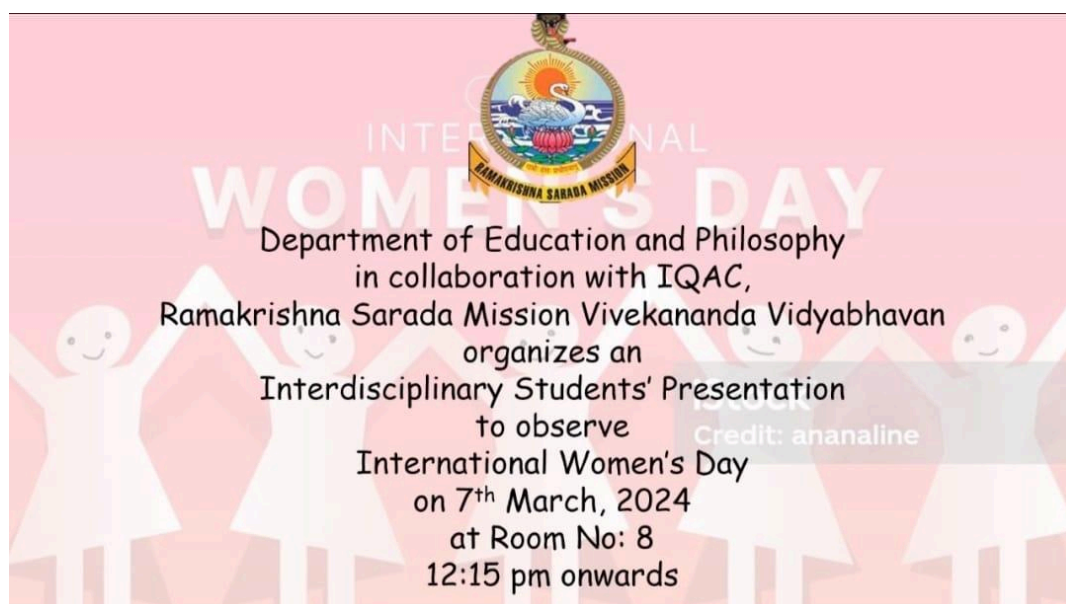

Venue: Swamiji Bhavan

Speaker: Semester 5 students of Philosophy and Education

No of Participants: 90

Brief Description of the event: The 5th-semester students of the Department of Philosophy and Education jointly organized a students' seminar to celebrate International Working Women's Day. The students of Philosophy presented a paper on the brief history of the celebration of Women's Day along with the feminist movements for their rights. In the second part, they spoke of the women characters portrayed in Indian literature reflecting women's struggle to survive with dignity in a patriarchal society.

Programme Outcome: The event gave opportunity to the students of the Department of Philosophy and Education to organise a seminar, make presentations and conduct the whole event on women empowerment. The program also helped to recognise the achievements of women, to be aware of the rights of women, raise awareness about gender inequality & discrimination and to promote gender equality & women's empowerment
