Brief Description of the Event: On August 13, 2024, RKSMVV, in collaboration with RKSM Bhagini Sudhira Narikalyan, Dakshineswar, organized a workshop on Shola Pith Craft at Muktiprana Sabhagriha and Room Number 8. The workshop was led by experienced trainers Sm Sabita Kar, Sm Maya Sarkar, Sm Chaitali Das, and Sm Supriya Sanapati, who shared their expertise in the traditional craft of Shola Pith. This hands-on workshop aimed to introduce participants to the delicate art of crafting with shola, a lightweight, natural material used to create intricate decorative items.

Programme Outcome: Before the workshop began, the trainers held an exhibition showcasing a variety of their handcrafted items, including beautifully crafted Rakhis made from pith. This exhibition provided participants with a glimpse into the unique craftsmanship and creativity involved in Shola Pith art, highlighting the artisans' skill and dedication. The workshop not only offered students the opportunity to learn this traditional craft but also served as a platform for supporting and encouraging the artisans. By participating, attendees contributed to the financial support of these talented artists, fostering a deeper appreciation for traditional crafts and empowering local artisans. The event was a valuable experience for all, promoting cultural heritage while inspiring creativity and skill development among the students.
