

NAME OF THE EVENT: World Book and Copyright Day

CATEGORY: Library Outreach

DATE: April 23rd, 2024

TIME: 10:15 am to 04:30 pm

VENUE: Shraddhaprana Pathakaksha (Library Reading Room)

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS: All students, faculty and other staff members

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENT: World Book and Copyright Day, celebrated annually on April 23rd, is a UNESCO-designated day aimed at promoting reading, publishing, and protecting intellectual property through copyright. This day coincides with the traditional date of William Shakespeare's birth, making it a particularly significant day for literature enthusiasts worldwide. It provides an opportunity to celebrate the richness and diversity of literature, including the timeless works of William Shakespeare. Ramakrishna Sarada Mission Vivekananda Vidyabhavan Library organized an exhibition of the huge collection of Shakespeare along with critiques and commentaries on his works to celebrate the World Book and Copyright Day.

PROGRAMME OUTCOME: The outcome of the exhibition was highly satisfactory.

Increased Awareness: The exhibition raised awareness among students, faculty, and staff about the life, works, and enduring legacy of William Shakespeare.

Promotion of Reading: The exhibition promoted reading by showcasing a variety of Shakespeare's plays, sonnets, and other works.

Copyright Awareness: The exhibition raised awareness about copyright issues related to Shakespeare's works.

Overall, this book exhibition on Shakespeare on World Book and Copyright Day in Ramakrishna Sarada Mission Vivekananda Vidyabhavan Library served as a meaningful and enriching experience for the college community:-

