

Name of the Event: Parampara Class

Category: Special lecture

Date: 27th September 2024

Topic: Critical Reflection on Hosper's Theory of Words

Speaker: Smt. Pallabi Mondal

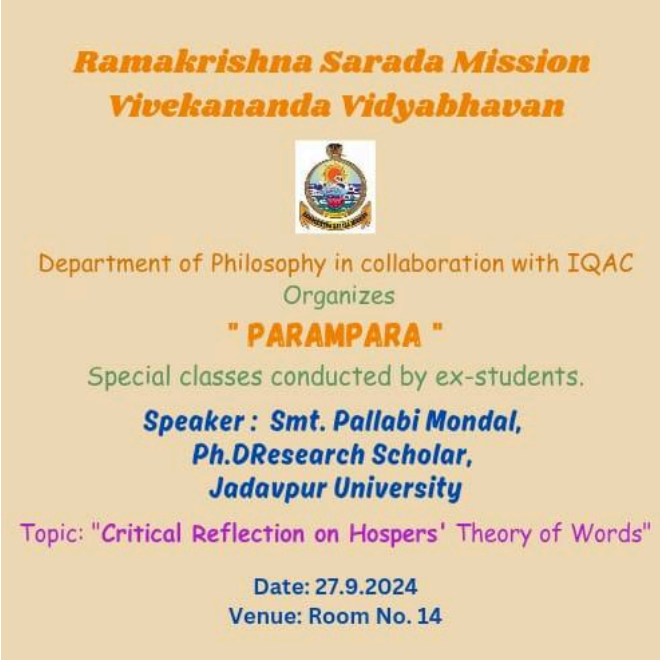

Participants: Semester 5 Students

No. of Participants: 13

Brief Description of the event: Smt. Pallabi Mondal conducted a comprehensive Parampara class focusing on Hosper's Theory of Words. The class involved a detailed exploration of the key concepts and principles of the theory. Smt. Mondal explained the underlying framework of the text, breaking down complex ideas and supporting the explanations with practical examples. Her approach aimed to clarify the intricate elements of the theory, ensuring that students could grasp its nuances.

Program Outcome: The class proved to be extremely beneficial for the students as it provided a platform to address numerous doubts and clarify complex aspects of the theory. The in-depth explanations and examples helped the participants develop a better understanding of Hosper's theory and its application. The interactive session was particularly effective in reinforcing the students' conceptual clarity.

Flyer

Ramakrishna Sarada Mission
Vivekananda Vidyabhavan

Department of Philosophy in collaboration with IQAC
Organizes
" PARAMPARA "
Special classes conducted by ex-students.
Speaker : Smt. Pallabi Mondal,
Ph.D Research Scholar,
Jadavpur University
Topic: "Critical Reflection on Hoppers' Theory of Words"
Date: 27.9.2024
Venue: Room No. 14

