

Name of Activity: Interface Between Peers

Category: Lectures

Organising Unit: Departments of History

Date: December 2, 2024

Time: 11.15 a.m.

Venue: Room Number 15

Resource Persons: 1. Ayantika Pradhan and Saheli Biswas.

2. Ayantika Maity and Ria Naskar

Number of Participants: 22

Brief Description of the Event: This Event focuses on special interactive lectures by Fifth Semester students on both curricular and non-curricular issues. First Semester and Third students actively engaged and showed keen interest on the PPT presentations on Women, Not Highlighted in the Nationalist Movements of Bengal and on Some Aspects of the Bengal Renaissance event was conceptualised to evaluate the relationship of courage and bravery of Shahid Pritilata Waddedar and the RG Kar movement for justice.

Programme Outcome: This programme was successful so far as the initial goal was set. It motivated both Peer Groups to teach and learn using ICT facilities. This was the first exposure of First Semester students to women's issues in the history of Nationalist Movement of India. The discussions on Bengal Renaissance threw up the issues of the famous social reformers in Bengal and the limitations. Both gained confidence in the issues they were speaking on how to teach and how to learn from the Peers.

Flyer:

RAMAKRISHNA SARADA MISSION
VIVEKANANDA VIDYABHAVAN

HISTORY DEPARTMENT
PRESENTS
INTERFACE BETWEEN PEERS

5th SEMESTER 1st SEMESTER

DATE : 02/12/24
TIME : 11:15AM
VENUE : ROOM NO-15

Geo-tagged Photos:

