Brief Description of the Event: The Department of Political Science observed Constitution Day, 2024 on 26th November. Students of all three semesters participated in an Experiential Learning Programme to deepen their understanding of Constitution Day. This Programme had lectures by two of the Department's former students Tandra Mandal and Joyshree Mondal. As part of the celebration, the students put up posters to honour the occasion.

Programme Outcome: Tandra Mandal the first speaker of the programme delivered an excellent lecture on the Right to Freedom. Tandra Mandal included the Right to freedom covered in Article 19, Article 20- which protects against arbitrary arrest and detention, Article 21A- Which safeguards the right to life and personal liberty, and Article 22- which protects against arbitrary or unlawful imprisonment.

Joyshree Mondal the second speaker delivered a lecture on Federalism in India. She included India's federal system is a system of government that divides power between the central government and regional entities.
