Venue – Mukti prana Sabhagriha and college premises

Brief Description of the Event and Programme Outcome –

The Annual Puja of the College is a much awaited event. Preparations for this auspicious day start well in advance. The prayer hall is decorated very beautifully with flowers and alpana. On the day of the occasion, cultural programmes like bhajan, bhakti geeti start early in the morning. Homa is done by Matajis, with enthusiastic participation by students, devotees and staff. Stories from Sri Maa Sarada Devi's life are read out. This year a speech was delivered by Pravrajika Nirvedprana Mataji. After 12 PM Bhogarati was completed and prasad was distributed. The Alumni association held a book stall near the prayer hall. All enjoyed the puja and spent the whole day with devotion and joy.
