Date: 12/02/2025

Time: 12.15 pm onwards

Venue: Muktiprana Sabhagriha

Number of Students: 9

Number of Judges: 3

Description of the Event: The Cultural Sub Committee of RKSMVV organized a skit competition on 12th February 2025, focusing on satire with a meaningful social message. A total of nine students participated, performing engaging and thought-provoking acts that highlighted various societal issues through humour and irony.

The performances addressed themes such as corruption, cyber fraud etc. Each skit cleverly blended wit and criticism to emphasize real-world concerns, leaving the audience both entertained and reflective. The competition was judged by three judges namely Suranjana Dasgupta, Dr. Chaiti Mitra, Dr. Sanchali Bhattacharya. They assessed the performances based on creativity, dialogue delivery, impact, and overall presentation. The event was met with great enthusiasm and appreciation from both participants and spectators.

Outcome: The competition provided students with a platform to express their perspectives on societal issues in a creative and impactful way. Through satire, they learned how humour can be an effective tool for raising awareness and promoting critical thinking. The event also enhanced their teamwork, scriptwriting, and acting skills while fostering confidence in public speaking. Most importantly, it encouraged them to be more socially conscious and to use art as a medium for change.
