

Event Report 2025 (January – June)

Department of English

Name of the Event: Revelio – The Literary Fest

Category: Biennial Department Literary Festival

Date of the Event: 07.05.2025

Time: 10:15 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Venue: Room No. 08 and College Common Room

Participants: 50

Brief Description of the Event: Revelio, the much-anticipated biennial literary fest of the Department of English, was successfully organised on 7th May, 2025. The event was inaugurated by our reverend Principal Mataji, whose warm and encouraging words set an enthusiastic tone for the day. This year's edition was spearheaded by the semester VI students, who conceptualised the theme—Popular Culture—and curated a diverse lineup of competitions and activities around it. The fest witnessed enthusiastic participation from students of other departments and institutions, making it a vibrant, inclusive celebration of creativity.

The standout event of Revelio 2025 was Strings and Stories—a puppeteering workshop conducted by The Dolls Theatre, Kolkata. It provided an engaging introduction to the history, styles, and geographical diversity of puppetry traditions. The hands-on puppet-making session was a crowd-puller and greatly appreciated by participants from multiple institutions.

A lively mini-fair saw students from various departments hosting stalls offering homemade snacks, drinks, and handmade crafts. The event was a tremendous success, drawing staff, students, and faculty alike. Additionally, a vibrant selfie booth set up by the fourth semester students with props and themed décor became a hotspot for festive photos and fun.

The fest concluded with a prize distribution ceremony graced by Dr. Kabita Nath, IQAC Coordinator, who handed over certificates and prizes to the winners across events, acknowledging their talent and enthusiasm.

Outcome: The fest fostered interdisciplinary collaboration and strengthened student leadership. Participants explored popular culture as a creative and critical space across genres and media. Also, the workshop and fair provided hands-on experience and community engagement, turning the literary fest into a campus-wide celebration.