Venue: Swamiji Bhavan

Name of Resource Persons:

1. Sri Ankan Biswas, Advocate of State Legal Services Authority, West Bengal
2. Ms. Mrityika Chatterjee, Guest Faculty, Department of Geography, Ramakrishna Sarada Mission Vivekananda Vidyabhavan

Number of Participants: 142

Brief Description of the Event:

The programme started at 2 p.m. with the welcome address by our Principal Pravrajika Vedarupaprana. The chairperson of the IC Dr Soma Marik explained the importance of the topic. Ms Mrityika Chatterjee, highlighted the problems the transgender persons face citing incidents from her own life and many other traumatic events. Mr. Ankan Biswas spoke about the legal issues and the situations of transgender persons along with diverse nuances of the POSH Act and the Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Act, 2019. The speakers interacted with the students. The programme ended with a successful discussion.

Programme Outcome:

The students came to know about a very contemporary topic that demands serious discussions and awareness about the lives of non-binary persons. Their knowledge on both the legal and social aspects of transgender citizens made a leap forward.
