Brief Report:

The Parampara Class held on 11th April 2025 featured a thought-provoking lecture by Smt. Priyanka Chowdhury, an ex-student of the college. In line with the Parampara initiative—where former students return to share knowledge and experiences with current learners—this session focused on a critical and relevant topic: Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's views on caste and the Dalit system in India.

Smt. Chowdhury provided a detailed overview of Dr. Ambedkar's life, his relentless struggle against caste discrimination, and his vision of social justice and equality. She emphasized Ambedkar's critiques of the Hindu caste hierarchy, his efforts toward Dalit emancipation, and the constitutional safeguards he fought for as the chief architect of the Indian Constitution. The session concluded with an interactive Q&A where students enthusiastically participated, asking insightful questions and engaging in meaningful discussion.

Outcome:

The session was highly informative and impactful, sparking interest among the students about the historical and social dimensions of caste. It successfully fulfilled the goal of the Parampara Class by bridging generations through education and inspiring students to think critically about social issues. Feedback from participants indicated deep appreciation for both the speaker and the topic.
