Number of Judges: 3

Description of the event: The Cultural Sub Committee of RKSMVV organized a poster competition on February 4, 2025, based on the theme "Fight for Rights." The event aimed to encourage students to express their perspectives on human rights, equality, and social justice through creative visual representation. A total of nine students participated, showcasing their artistic talents and understanding of the theme. Each participant was given 1 hour 45 mins time to create their posters, using various artistic techniques and materials. The posters highlighted significant historical movements, modern-day struggles, and the importance of standing up for justice. The competition was judged by three esteemed judges. They were Dr. Gargi Gangopadhyay, Dr. Panchali Majumdar, Dr. Kabita Nath. They assessed the posters based on creativity, relevance to the theme, and overall presentation.

Outcome:

The competition provided students with an opportunity to explore and communicate important societal issues through art. It enhanced their awareness of human rights and social justice while fostering creativity and critical thinking. Participants also learned the significance of visual storytelling in advocating for a cause, making the event both educational and inspiring.
