Educational Trip to Jorasanko Tagore House

Name of the Event: Educational Trip to Jorasanko Tagore House

Organizing Unit: Department of Bengali, RKSMVV

Category: Educational Trip

Date: July 23, 2025

Time: 11 am onwards

Venue: Jorasanko Thakur Bari

Number of Participants: 14 students and 4 faculty members

Brief Description:

The Department of Bengali organized an educational excursion to Jorasanko Tagore House for Semester 2 and 4 NEP Major Students, along with Semester 2 Minor students. The visit was led by faculty members Dr. Debrupa Das (Head of the Department), Smt. Anurima Saha, Dr. Debarati Chakraborty, and Susmita Mistri. The faculty provided valuable commentary on the museum's collections, including paintings, sculptures, and historical documents that reflect the life and works of Rabindranath Tagore.

Programme Outcome:

The trip offered an enriching experience for students of Bengali literature by connecting academic learning with cultural immersion. Exploring Rabindranath Tagore's ancestral home allowed students to delve into the history of the Tagore family through curated portraits and genealogical exhibits. The galleries depicting Tagore's international travels emphasized his role in fostering cross-cultural dialogue. Students gained insights into how Tagore both absorbed and influenced global cultures through his art and writing, promoting avenues for comparative literary and cultural studies. The visit significantly deepened their appreciation of literary heritage beyond classroom boundaries.
