Brief Description of Event and Programme Outcome: The Department of History in collaboration with the IQAC organised a Book Talk on Europe: 19th Century and Afterwards. Dr. Sunetra Mitra introduced the speakers. Sri Sunandan Roychowdhury introduced the author and spoke about Sampark, its goals and achievements. He also highlighted the role of Sampark in translation of both European and Indian literature. He also introduced the author Dr. Arup Kumar Biswas. The author spoke at length about his book, Europe: Unish Shatak o Tarpur. A small book kiosk was made that displayed the author's book along with other books by Sampark. He also spoke about his other works. It was an interactive session, attended by teachers and students from the departments of English and History. Dr. Sheli Dutta offered the vote of thanks. Both teachers and students benefited from the talk. They came to know about new research in European history and new translated works by Sampark.
