Brief Description - The 79th Independence Day was celebrated with patriotic fervor and enthusiasm at RKSMVV under the theme “The Flame of Revolution”. The day’s proceedings began with the ceremonial flag hoisting at 9:00 am on the college ground by the Chief Guest, Dr. Mamata Roy (Choudhuri), followed by the national song that instilled pride and unity among all present. The program commenced with a drill display by the students, showcasing discipline and coordination. A yoga session was then performed, symbolizing the harmony of body and mind while celebrating the spirit of independence. The cultural program held at Muktiprana Sabhagriha, included stirring patriotic songs and recitations of poems that paid tribute to the freedom fighters of India. A specially curated drama portrayed the lives and sacrifices of revolutionaries such as Pritilata Waddedar, Kanailal Dutta, Benoy Krishna Basu, Badal Gupta, and Dinesh Chandra Gupta, whose courage continues to inspire generations. The event successfully merged tradition, culture, and history, evoking a strong sense of nationalism and reverence for the country’s hard-won freedom.

Learning Outcome -

- Students gained awareness of the historical sacrifices made by revolutionaries in India’s freedom struggle.
- The cultural performances encouraged creativity, teamwork, and confidence in expressing patriotic emotions.
- The drill and yoga sessions instilled discipline, fitness awareness, and the value of collective participation.
- The celebration strengthened the spirit of unity, responsibility, and national pride among students.
