- Name of the activity: Extension Lecture
- Category: Departmental Activity
- Organizing Unit: Political science Department, RKSMVV & LBC
- Date: 19th August 2025
- Time: 11 am to 1 pm
- Venue: Online Platform Google Meet
- Number of Participants: 55
- Name of Topic: Gender and Public Administration

Brief description of the event:

As part of the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between Ramakrishna Sarada Mission Vivekananda Vidyabhavan (RKSMVV) and Lady Brabourne College (LBC), the Department of Political Science organized an Extension Lecture on “Gender and Public Administration” on 19th August 2025, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. via Google Meet. The session aimed to foster academic collaboration and intellectual exchange between the two institutions. The lecture explored the intersection of gender perspectives within the framework of public administration, highlighting challenges, policy implications, and the role of gender-sensitive governance. A total of 55 participants, including faculty members and students from both institutions, actively engaged in the discussion.

Programme Outcome:

The lecture enhanced participants’ understanding of how gender influences administrative structures, decision-making, and policy implementation. It encouraged critical reflection on inclusivity and equity in governance processes. Students gained valuable insights into contemporary debates on gender mainstreaming in public administration and developed a more nuanced perspective on administrative reforms aimed at promoting gender justice and social equality.
