Description of the Event: The Music competition held on 16th December 2025, was an expansive event celebrating India's rich and diverse musical heritage. Divided into four categories—Nazrulgeeti/Semi-Classical, Adhunik (Modern), Folk, Bhajan, and Rabindrasangeet—the event saw enthusiastic participation across disciplines. The music competition was organized to celebrate diverse genres of Indian vocal music and to encourage young talent. The competition featured four categories—Rabindrasangeet, Nazrulgeeti, Bhajan, and Adhunik—reflecting India's rich cultural and musical heritage. Participants showcased their musical skills through expressive renditions rooted in classical, devotional, and modern traditions. The Adhunik category was specially dedicated as a tribute to Salil Chowdhury, commemorating his birth centenary, where contestants performed his timeless compositions, highlighting his lasting contribution to Indian music.

The judges evaluated the participants on voice quality, expression, pronunciation, choice of song, and stage presence. The event was both a celebration of music and a tribute to the traditions that continue to define Indian musical identity.

Outcome:

The competition cultivated musical appreciation, performance discipline, and interpretative understanding among students. It provided an immersive learning experience and strengthened their connection to the musical traditions of Bengal and India.
