Brief Description of the Event: The Youth Convention on Human Values was organized by the IQAC, Ramakrishna Sarada Mission Vivekananda Vidyabhavan (RKSMVV) on 26 December 2025 at Mukti-prana Sabhagriha, from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. The programme aimed at promoting human values and personality development among youth, inspired by the teachings of Swami Vivekananda.

The academic sessions included lectures by Dr. Dhiman Ganguly on “Vivekananda in Daily Life” and Sri Arijit Sarkar on “Youth: Problems and Solutions in the Light of Swami Vivekananda.” A Personality Development Workshop was conducted by four trainers from Vivekananda Kendra, Kanyakumari.

In the Personality Development Workshop, students were divided into 14 groups for group discussions on topics based on Swami Vivekananda’s messages. Group presentations and interactive activities, including a focus-based game, encouraged teamwork, leadership, awareness, and effective communication.

The programme concluded with a Students’ Engagement Session, allowing participants to reflect on their learning experiences and internalize the values discussed throughout the day.

Outcome of the Event: The Youth Convention on Human Values proved to be a highly enriching and impactful programme. It fostered moral awareness, leadership qualities, teamwork, self-discipline, and holistic personality development among students. The event successfully fulfilled its objective of promoting human values and strengthening the relevance of Swami Vivekananda's teachings in the lives of young learners.
