- Number of Participants: 100
- Brief description of the event: The NSS Unit of RKSMVV organized 'Nara Narayana Seva' at the college campus on 14/02/2026 with the objective of serving the underprivileged, extending support and compassion towards economically weaker sections and promoting the spirit of humanitarian values of selfless service among students. The programme was conducted in accordance with the ideals of service propagated by Sri Ramakrishna, Holy Mother Sri Sarada Devi, and Swami Vivekananda. Freshly prepared meals, sarees and mosquito nets were provided to the needy persons in the nearby locality. NSS volunteers actively participate in serving food.
- Programme Outcome: The Naranarayan Seva programme was successfully conducted with enthusiastic participation from NSS volunteers. It served as a meaningful platform to translate the ideals of compassion and service into practical action, thereby fostering holistic development of students and contributing positively to society.

Volunteers gained firsthand experience of social realities and developed empathy towards marginalized communities. The programme reinforced the principle of “Service to Man is Service to God.” The initiative strengthened the relationship between the institution and the local community. Volunteers reported a sense of fulfillment, responsibility, and moral upliftment through active service.
