Brief description of the event: The Department of Bengali and the Cultural Sub-Committee with IQAC of RKSMVV organized a Bhasha Divas celebration titled “Japone Matribhasha” on 27 February 2026 at Muktiprana Sabhagriha. The programme commenced at 1:30 PM and witnessed the enthusiastic participation of 24 students.

The event through the cultural programme was organized to commemorate the importance of the mother tongue and to promote awareness about linguistic heritage and cultural identity. The programme began with an introductory address by Dr. Debrupa Das, Associate Professor, Department of Bengali highlighting the significance of International Mother Language Day and the role of language in preserving cultural values and traditions.

Students actively participated in various segments of the programme. They expressed their thoughts and emotions about the importance of the mother tongue through recitation, songs, and short dance recitals. The participants reflected on how the Bengali language shapes identity, creativity, and cultural continuity. The event successfully encouraged students to value and practice their mother tongue in everyday life.

Programme Outcome:

- 1. Enhanced Awareness of Linguistic Heritage:
Students developed a deeper understanding of the cultural and historical importance of their mother tongue.
- 2. Promotion of Cultural Identity:
The programme strengthened students’ appreciation of Bengali language as an integral part of their cultural identity.
- 3. Improved Communication and Expression:
Participants gained confidence in expressing ideas, emotions, and opinions in their mother tongue through speeches and recitations.
- 4. Encouragement of Cultural Participation:
The event motivated students to engage in cultural and literary activities related to language and heritage.

5. Value of Language Preservation:

Students recognized the importance of preserving and promoting the mother tongue in academic and social contexts.
