- Brief description of the event: The NSS Orientation Programme for Semester–I was successfully organized on 6th February 2026 with the objective of introducing newly enrolled students to the vision, mission, and activities of the National Service Scheme (NSS). The programme aimed to inspire students to develop a sense of social responsibility, leadership, and community engagement.

The Resource Person, Dr. Sanghamitra Mukherjee, Assistant Professor, Department of Sanskrit, RKSMVV and Former NSS Programme Officer, delivered an insightful and motivating lecture. She elaborated on the motto of NSS, “Not Me, But You,” highlighting the spirit of selfless service and collective welfare. She also discussed the structure of NSS, its regular and special camp activities, and the importance of volunteerism in shaping responsible citizens.

Dr. Mukherjee shared her experiences as a former Programme Officer and encouraged students to actively participate in community outreach programmes, awareness campaigns, health initiatives, environmental activities, and social service projects. The session was interactive and engaging, helping the students understand the significance of NSS in personality development and nation-building.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks by the present NSS Programme Officer Dr. Amrita Pramanick, expressing gratitude to the Resource Person for her valuable guidance and encouragement to the new volunteers.

- Programme Outcome:
The NSS Orientation Programme for Semester–I was successfully conducted with the objective of familiarizing newly enrolled students with the philosophy, objectives, structure, and activities of the National Service Scheme (NSS). The programme created awareness about the role of youth in nation-building and community service.

Through interactive sessions, the participants gained a clear understanding of the motto of NSS –

“Not Me But You”, its significance, and the importance of voluntary service in fostering social responsibility. Students were oriented about the organizational framework of NSS, regular activities, special camps, and the expectations from NSS volunteers in academic as well as social contexts.

The programme helped in developing a sense of discipline, leadership, teamwork, and civic consciousness among the Semester-I students. It motivated them to actively participate in social welfare activities related to health, hygiene, environmental protection, gender equality, literacy, and national integration.

Overall, the orientation programme successfully inspired students to commit themselves to the ideals of NSS, encouraging them to contribute meaningfully towards community development while nurturing their own personality, values, and sense of social commitment.
