- Brief description of the event :

An Outreach Programme for our Elders was organized on 10th March, 2026 at the campus of Ramakrishna Sarada Mission Vivekananda Vidyabhavan by the NSS Unit and IQAC of RKSMVV in collaboration with Jagorani Foundation, Kestopur with the objective of expressing respect, care, and social responsibility toward senior members of our society. The programme was conducted with the active participation of NSS volunteers and monastic faculties of our college.

The members (08 female and 12 male persons) of the S.C. Sen Old Age Home, known as 'NATUN GHAR', situated at Muragachha, in between Madhyamgram and Sodepur, established and looked after by Jagorani Foundation, were invited to RKSMVV on the occasion of college foundation day, i.e. on 10th March, 2026.

During the programme, the elders were warmly welcomed and engaged in friendly interaction with the students. Cultural performances, informal discussions, and sharing of life experiences created a joyful and meaningful environment. The NSS volunteers and other students staged the play 'Tenida'. Basic assistance and small tokens of appreciation were also offered as a gesture of gratitude for their wisdom and contributions to society. The event aimed to strengthen intergenerational bonding and promote values of empathy, service, and respect among students.

- Programme Outcome :

Students developed a deeper sense of compassion and responsibility toward elderly members of society. Interaction with elders allowed students to learn from their experiences, wisdom, and life stories. The programme reinforced values such as respect, empathy, and gratitude toward senior citizens. Strengthened the relationship between the institution and the local community. Participation enhanced students' communication skills, sensitivity, and awareness of social issues related to aging.
