Brief Description of the Event- The Department of English of RKSMVV, organized a film screening of Pride and Prejudice on 15th May, 2026 at [Venue]. The event was conducted for college students with the objective of promoting literary appreciation through cinema and encouraging discussions on classic English literature. The film screened was the 2005 adaptation of Pride and Prejudice, directed by Joe Wright and starring Keira Knightley and Matthew Macfadyen. The Students attended the screening enthusiastically and remained highly engaged throughout the film. Following the screening, an interactive discussion session was held where students shared their opinions and interpretations of the characters and themes. The moderator of the event guided the discussion and highlighted important literary elements represented in the film.

Programme Outcome- The film screening of Pride and Prejudice was a successful and enriching event. It provided students with both educational and cultural exposure while fostering interest in literature and film studies. It helped to enhance students' understanding of themes such as social class, gender roles, and family values of the Georgian era, and encouraged their critical thinking. Students expressed that the screening helped them better understand the novel and made classic literature more accessible and enjoyable.
